Hello "disb" likely Edmund first...but hello to all,

On reading the draft proposal, I thought it needed some further development along the lines of a now four year old , multi authored article "Corridors of Clarity" published in Bioscience, attached.

This article is a little more solutions oriented than our "Preparing Scientists, Policymakers, and Managers for a Fast-Forward Future" or whatever we called it ... which also might be put in the bibliography.

With best wishes,

Dick
